“ To the Cooley and Douglas family. My heart goes out to the family. God will give you peace that passes all understanding during this time. I trust God will meet every individual spiritual and physical need during this time. I knew Douglas well and had a lot of laughs with him. He married my best friend so that made him my friend. Connie you have a great support system. You will handle this because you is a woman of strong faith in God and knows where your help comes from...GOD.. I love you
