I just seen you at the cancer center and bought us something to eat and site and talked why I was waiting on my treatment's the first thing you done was got up and ran over and hugged me and said you know Kevin is my son right lol.he loved you and so did I. I'm so glad we had that day because we got to tell each other that we loved each other and God was going to take care of us. I'm so sorry that he had to have you now now.but you're in such a beautiful place now.no more pain .I love you and miss you deeply
