Condolences to Mrs. Tangi Rucker and the entire Rucker family. Barry will definitely be missed. He was fun to be around, I remember back in the day when Barry, Gerald Sims and I went to the South Carolina State University battle of the bands @ the Atlanta Falcons stadium we had a great time, such good memories. Take your flight my bro, RIH Omega Psi Phi Inc (Dip Dogg!)

Barry you were one of my best and most interesting friends I ever knew. Been wondering and asking around. Been in hospital in and out the last three years. Told people to get hold of you because my time had become nigh. It is very shocking to find out you have already left us. However until we meet again, stand over us all! Always remember the gospel songs we sang, especially "this may be the last time, I don't know ." Our friend, Jimmie Ligon, who never knew the songs because he grew up Methodist. Will always remember you. George Spears , Class of 91

My dear cousin was such a caring and friendly guy who cherished life in a way that filled others with his love and lots of fun. Memories of him will comfort and strengthen his family, friends and others that knew him as God guide everyone through this time of sorrow. Remember the good times during his home going celebration.
