Barbara Harris Starks. Betty was more than just my friend she was my sister in Christ. I've known her for many years including the time we spent at the Brooklyn va as well as the st.albans va. My sister will truly be missed and loved always thank you for allowing me to express just a portion of my love and respect for my sister. Stay Blessed and her family will continue to be in our prayers 🙏

“Miss Betty” was like my second Mom. She would load all of us kids into her station wagon to go get ice cream. She had a big heart and smile and the best laugh. Miss Betty, you are missed.

“ My cousin Betty!! We always called each other Cousin Betty and she called me Cousin Lisa. She was always very kind to me and would bring me to her home often in Queens NY as I grew up. It was always fund memories with them and Cousin Bob along with my cousins Yvette and Stanley, the youngest cousin came along later in life as we were older and moving on. I loved cousin Betty. My mother Esther Williams and he were very close and we together for most of my mothers life. I pray for the comfort of God to be with her family and friends. Sorry I couldn't be there. Much Love Grace and Honor to this beautiful woman!
