“ Betty Murphy Jones was a wonderful and loving person with goodness etched in her very soul. I vividly recall becoming her colleague in 1975 at Bethel-Hanberry when I was a new inexperienced teacher. She was a sounding board and helped me tremendously as I navigated through my first year. Her loving presence and sensible advice added to my success. She attended Bible Light Holiness Church on Highway 34 and she would always invite others to visit. I still remember the services at her church and how deeply the congregation became involved in the worship experience. You knew that the light that always glowed in her presence was real. After she moved away, I never forgot her genuineness, her love for others, and her impact as an educator. Heaven certainly has a special place for her.

“ Miss Murphy set the standards for what a great teacher should be. She was my science teacher at Bethel Middle School, way back in the 70s. She was strict and held her students to a high standard, all the while greeting us with a smile and a hug. I think I'm a better person today because of her and the other teachers at Bethel-Hanberry. Wishing her family and friends comfort and peace during this difficult time.

“ I became a friend of Betty’s when I started working at Richland 2 at BethelHanberryMiddle School in Blythewood. I was a teacher’s aide and was assigned to work in the classroom with her.

Betty had a classroom that the children loved to enter. She was strict but kept the children’s attention. She always greeted everyone that entered her classroom with a smile. She taught three of my children and they benefited by having her as their teacher. They loved her.

Betty also at night taught classes at school in sewing and I took that class and she taught me everything I know about sewing. She was so talented in many ways.

Betty’s mom worked in the lunchroom . In fact Betty’s family live just a couple miles from me. This being a small community at that time it really felt like one big family .

I attended Betty’s wedding but was sad when she moved away. I was happy for her starting a new life.

She was a devout Christian lady that touched many lives in this community. I am sure she will be at Jesus table on Monday when we celebrate his birthday.
