“ Aunt Peggy and yes you'll always be my Aunt Peggy and he'll always be my Uncle Carl, I don't know what to say there are no words that can express what both of you mean to me and how the world will be a sadder place without Uncle Carl. As a young girl coming into the family you welcomed me with open arms and Uncle Carl always made me laugh, between him & my father in-law William McAlister, you never went to a family gathering that they didn't have you laughing about something. Like the time Zachary was learning to walk and fell out of a chair trying to stand up and fell head first on the floor, well VCR Recorders were new and they tried to recreate it because it wasn't recorded. I bet them 2 have all of heaven laughing right now. Love y'all always, Tracy Merck (McAlister)

“ To Peggy and the family. Our sincere condolences and prayers are with you. We go back a long ways of friendship with you and Carl. Our hearts are heavy as Michael and I talk about the army Reserve Days that he and Carl shared together. We are here for you and praying that God will give you strength peace and comfort in days of bereavement. Carl will be missed. He was loved but God loves him more. Rest in peace our friend and army buddy.. Rose & Michael
