Lisha, I know that you have been through a lot in past years, but just remember, that somehow he takes us though it all. Lisha, in May 1998, my sister Gilda was on her way home from work, and the same thing happened to her , with her 5 year old son in the car, who if nothing happens will be 25 in Feb. We were very concerned with the effects that this tragedy would do to him. But with the love, that the Cooley family will show her son and you as well, I know that you will put God first, her son will make it. My nephew graduated form USC, and is now doing quite well Hold to God's unchanging hand and do not let go I am not going to tell you that it is going to be easy, because it is not, but God and time can heal all wounds. Although I still hurt, and I am sure her children do, I hold on to the fact that, We are living this life just to live again, so we can see them. Lisha your and I went to school together , you were ahead of me , but you always treated me nice and kept smiling (please do not stop) Hold On Lisha, and Cooley family.

*Praying hard for all of you
