“ I know you love haven baby because of all the beautiful angels. And I know that they love you too. Because you were the most loving person anyone could ever ask for. I know I am glad God sent you to me you were there for me though bad time's and took care of me though out my cancer days and you were always there we both done a lot of things that hurt one another but we always overcome all of it.I know that you truly loved me and you always said no one would ever take my place and I know that because that morning you came to me in the hospital and asked me to marry you and I said yes and then we kissed and hugged for a long time I asked you if you were gonna let me go because my iv was in the way you look at me and said no way you're my Aces baby and always has been. Then you we let go and smiled at one another. Then you told me I will be back if you don't get to come home baby I love you. And I said oh I'm coming home we have a lot to plan baby.then you kissed me goodbye. I will never forget you are that time we had that day. I just want to know why God sent the angel for you that same day???? I will never know until we meet again I love you *if the sun should rise and find your eyes, filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.*
