“ Words can't express how hurt I was to hear of your passing. I know God makes no mistakes and I'm certain that you're in His presence. We were literally just together. Your genuine love for ALL of your family was truly admirable. We always said "I love you" & the hugs were endless. I'll miss talking on the phone for hours about the most random stuff, texting at 1 or 2 am when one of us couldn't sleep & definitely your sense of humor. I'll miss you forever. Until we meet again my girl. I love you. ❤️

“ Kyshae, it's so hard to accept that you are not here anymore. I had just kissed you on your forehead and embraced you with Love a few hrs before you went to be with the Lord. I remember when you spent the summer in Maryland with me and my family. Your Smile and your Wit was so contagious. I really saw a beautiful and caring young lady. I will always have a special place in my heart for you. Rest In Peace Baby Cuz, you now will wear your CROWN!
