“ Edwin and I were classmates, and more importantly, close friends throughout high school. He was one of the best pitchers our baseball program had ever had. He had the most dazzling fade-away jump-shot that opposing basketball teams came to fear. I will always cherish having known and been friends with Edwin. May God Be With All Of His Family And Friends.

“ FROM SOME OF THE CREW....

Death is nothing at all.

It does not count.

I have only slipped away into the next room.

Nothing has happened.

Everything remains exactly as it was.

I am I, and you are you, and the old life that we lived so fondly together is untouched, unchanged.

Whatever we were to each other, that we are still.

Call me by the old familiar name.

Speak of me in the easy way which you always used.

Put no difference into your tone.

Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.

Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes that we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, pray for me.

Let my name be ever the household word that it always was.

Let it be spoken without an effort, without the ghost of a shadow upon it. Life means all that it ever meant.

It is the same as it ever was.

There is absolute and unbroken continuity.

What is this death but a negligible accident

Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight

I am but waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just round the corner.

All is well.

Nothing is hurt; nothing is lost.

One brief moment and all will be as it was before.

How we shall laugh at the trouble of parting when we meet again!

“ Pat, Mark and I thoughts and prayers are with you and family. Certainly, we are wishing you peace and comfort as you remember someone who was so close to you. As you celebrate Edwin's life we believe Edwin will live on in our hearts. We understand that words cannot express how deeply sorry we are for your loss. We believe your brother Edwin's spirit will always shine through you, and the memories of Edwin will be a source of strength. Just know that I'll always be here for you no matter what.

“ To my little brother, Edwin

*May your spirit soar in freedom
From the fears that gripped so tight.
May you find the peace you searched for
As you wandered, lost, in the night.*

*May your tortured mind be clear and calm
And your tender heart be warm.
May you have no need for strength now.
May there never be another storm.*

*May the music of the angels
Be the sweet sounds that you hear.
As you're rocked in heaven's cradle
May you never shed another tear.*

*I'll wear your memory proudly,
My only brother, Eddie, my childhood friend.
May my love for you reach Heaven above
Until we meet again.*

Wow, what a touching tribute, Eddie hung out at my grandparents' house on Minor Street (Rev. Carl and Gladys Sullivan) day in and day out, when we were younger, he hung out with my uncles, and they had a good time together.

*God Bless you, Patricia, and your family
