I love you Glenda & the rest of the Jefferson Family. There is simply not enough space or time to capture the essence of Glenda Jefferson, but in a few words: A prayer warrior, a woman of love, generosity, integrity, compassion, giver, teacher, wise woman, quiet leader. We will miss you Glenda, but your spirit lives on. Thank God!

“ Glenda was such a God-fearing, humble, loving and kind woman. Her generosity, care and concern for others was unmatched. She treated our niece Nikki and Nikki's children as though they were blood and flesh of her own. A big heart with so much to share with others.. Take your rest Glenda, you will truly be missed! Continued prayers for the Jefferson and Dizzley families.

“ Light a yellow candle for my sister and best friend. Yellow is one of the colors you used in your wedding. You were a beautiful bride. Our mother was in the hospital after the reception we went to the hospital to see our mom. Glenda you were the best sister. I miss you daily call, just to see how I am doing. When you health started to decline I would make the calls, sometimes 3 or 4 times a day. Several times I start to tell you something, just to realize you are not there.
