“ Words can't describe the mixed emotions going through my mind knowing that you are no longer in pain, but wishing you were still here. I can't help but reminisce on the times when I would travel down to SC and insisted that the first stop in town would be to your home. Thank you for teaching me how to make grandma's apple turnovers and sweet tea straight from the tea root. Thank you for all of the fun times and laughs shared. You were there when I needed to talk on life's struggles. We both are cut from the same laid-back nature and can rest assured that I will see you (my twin) again one day. Love you Aunt Glennnnnn!

“ I can't find words to express how much I will miss my sister. I take comfort in knowing (as God promised) we will see each other again. I smile for the peace that I know you have now, Glenda, but I will never stop missing you. I love you and I am blessed to have had you as a big sister.

I wish to express my deepest condolences to all of Glenda's family. I have worked with Sallie for years so I feel like I know Glenda even though we have never met. I pray God gives the family the peace and strength to make it each and every day.
