“ My Grandmother raised and nurtured us all. The majority of us lived with her throughout some point in our lives. I will never forget the early morning washups in the kitchen that she gave to each and every one of us. We all remember how hot the water would be. I remember the days she would bake kids and get on to us grandkids saying we would be in trouble if we made her cake fall. I remember the phone conversations we would have. I remember how blunt she could be, the only person I've ever met to tell someone NO and not give an explanation as to why she is saying NO. I will always miss and remember the sassy attitude , eye rolls, and lip smacking she would give. Most of all, in all of my Years on earth I don't know if I could think of many more people as Religious as you were. We all know you are resting in heaven.

I LOVE YOU MOMMA...your obituary stated you achieved the highest degree attainable a degree of a "Christian Soldier" yes she wore many hats....that of a comforter, a minister, a doctor, a lawyer, a nurse, a confidant, a counselor, a friend, yes even a foe... yeah...it's called tough love,(it didn't last long tho...lol) yes! she wore many hats, but her most special and I think the biggest hat she wore and loved most of all..was her "Momma" hat...she loved her children and... we will forever love "our momma"...a poem for you mama_____MOM....Good made a wonderful mother.a mother who never grows old; Her made her smile of the sunshine, and Her made her heart of pure gold. In her eyes He placed bright shiny stars, In her cheeks fair roses you see: God made a wonderful Mother, and He gave that dear mother to me...Love you mama

*Mama it's been 2 months and I have tried but Lord knows it's hard...life..my life just hasn't been the same since the day you left me...I know that we all must travel this road and leave someone behind who loved is and will miss us..
But Mama I just wasn't ready to be that someone left behind*

Hey mama I'm just sitting here thinking about you like I always do everyday... Mama I guess I'm a robot now bc I don't know how I make it thru each day but I do...I miss you so much my life is truly empty even though I manage to smile and even laugh at times but everything reminds me of you... I'm trying to do what I think is expected of me but I can never fill your shoes mama, in trying to step up and be the mama to Ryan that I should have been years ago... thank you for being the mother and grandmother you were bc of who you are he is who he is and I'm so proud of him.. so that's only the tip of the ice berg on my love for my mama.... she is my world and I didn't even know it yes were all love our mamas and we even tell them we love them, but when she can no longer pick up the phone and call you or ride over to your house unannounced or sit and just look at you and not say a word and it drives you crazy bc you're wondering why is she just starring at me.. When only if you knew that while she was just sitting there starring at you... she was talking to God about you keeping you covered... IF NOT FOR MY PRAYING MOTHER WHERE OH WHERE WOULD I BE
