“ Mama you were an incredible mother to all of us and I listened to a voicemail from you on May 31st that i thought was just a blank voicemail that you didn't mean to leave but as I kept listening to it you said “I'm ok Ryan...I'm ok”. I want you to know as I shared with you that I know you are ok but I'm not.. I realize that you had to leave us for now but when I get to Heaven I wanna be able to connect with you again and be greeted by your remarkable presence.. I'll know it's you. I love you forever and I'll make sure we keep loving each other as you requested.

“ My deepest condolences to the family of Jeannette Bolden. You were not just thought of Mia’s (my sister) mother-in-law, but considered a part of our family. You had a smile that could light up a room and such a great personality. Your love and commitment to Brayden was unmatched. I am grateful to have had the opportunity to know you and call you family. The Bible says to be absent from the body is to present with the Lord. You are now in the presence of our King.

“ Mom, you will always be a consistent presence in my life. I remember you holding me through every joy, and every pain. I thought it was just because you're a great mom, but I know now it's because you're just a great woman. Thank you for not just staying, but showing up when we needed you most.

You are one of my greatest friends. Thank you for making me laugh. Giving me direction. Inspiring me to keep stretching and always opening you arms wide to hold me tight. I love you to the moon and back. Rest well Angel..

Love,
Corey (CoCo) the nickname you gave me when I was little.
