“ *My deepest condolences to you family.
I remember when I first met Mrs. Joyce, KW brought me home and introduced me to his mother.
From that day on we became friends and shared so many special moments.
Missing her already, what a special blessing I had the pleasure of enjoying many years.
Our front porch visits were priceless.
Our prayers are with each one and we pray your strength in the transitioning of your beloved Mrs. Joyce.
Blessings always, Shyra Bridges*

“ My condolences to the family. I knew Mrs. Joyce for 32yrs. My husband Lovell took me by her home to meet her not long after we were married and she was so sweet, so kind, and so warm-hearted towards me. We talked as if we had known each other for a very long time eventhough we had just met, but that's the kind of person she was. She was always telling us so many funny stories about her life, always smiling and laughing. I would spend hours sometimes just sitting there talking with her. We love you aunt Joyce and we will never forget you or the times and laughs we shared together! No more in pain, reunited with your parents and your sons! Rest in heaven sweet queen, we love you, and you will never be forgotten
