“ Johnny,

Our hearts are broken for you and your wife. There is nothing more difficult than what you are going through. You are a tough and gentle person and we know you will guide your family through this. We and your many friends will pray for your family and Keith.

Love and prayers,

Francesca and Steve Sinclair

“ Keith was my nephew, I have cherished memories of his visits with me here on the Gulf Coast. To know him was to love him. He will be forever remembered as the loving, giving, kindhearted person he was. May God continue to keep him in his loving arms and his loving care. For his family, please know you did your very best, now God will do the rest.

Love always,
Aunt Juanita
