“ I was very sorry to hear of Sandra's passing. She was always a sweet and pleasant person. Our families have been associated for many years and I have a great deal of respect for the Cooley family. It is difficult to lose a family member, but take comfort in the fact that she is at peace. In the words of Stevie Wonder, she has reached the Higher Ground. I think of Sandra going to a reunion in the next life. She's with her parents, her daughter, Aunt Annie Mae, and Miss Dot. My deepest sympathy to all of you.

“ I have known Lisa, for many years, we went to school together , she was ahead of me, however no matter what the drama was , (she stayed out of it, and always treated me the same no matter what, more recently I heard that she was sick, but I knew that God and her family would take care of her without a shadow of a doubt , because this is the kind of people they are, someone told me that she was in a nursing home, I said I don't think so, I knew that would never happen unless it was temporary (for rehabilitation purposes) once again because I know her family and especially her sisters will never allow that to happen to her.

More recently I saw her at Sam's with her sisters she had on yellow still looking beautiful with that contagious smile, and I hugged her and told her that I loved her, she said I love you too.

To the Cooley Family, may God bless you all real good, I know what you are going through because my family has been there back to back, and that same God is coming again, but after while every day will be like Sunday.

“ Sandy You Will Truly Be Missed ❤️

Tammy Y. Curenton Davis - January 31, 2020 at 11:00 PM

“Heavenly Father, by your power Christ conquered death and ascended in glory. I pray that you will give the entire “Cooley” family the blessing of peace in the midst of their grief at the loss of their dear sweet sister “Lisha” #Sandy #MYFamily. We know that Jesus died and rose again, and is seated at your right hand, interceding for your people. I ask that you would bring comfort to each of their weary hearts. I thank you for the memories I have and shared with Sandy.

Lord Jesus, I know that You are close to those that are broken-hearted and grieving in their soul at this very moment and that You rescue those that are crushed in spirit. Draw near to Your many children who are facing times of sadness and loss and draw each one ever closer into Your precious arms of love and support.

Thank You that You are wonderfully good to all who wait for You and seek You, and I pray that those of my brothers and sisters in Christ who, – for whatever reason – are facing times of grief and hardship in their lives - that in Your grace and mercy You would draw very close to each one and gently carry them on Your shoulders, as a Shepherd carries a little lamb that has been torn by the briars.

Be close to all that are grieving today I pray, and flood their souls with hope – knowing that underneath are Your everlasting arms.

Give me a heart that is sensitive to those that are grieving, the wisdom to know when to speak words of comfort or when to keep silent. And Lord I also pray that You would use my life to be a channel of encouragement and hope, through whom the peace of the Lord Jesus Christ will flow into their hearts – to heal and help.

Thank You Lord that You are a God that answers prayers. Amen the Pinsons

My heartfelt sympathy goes out to the Entire Cooley Family!! I always called her Sandy she was such a beautiful person we got to know each other when we lived near her brother Booney and Barbara Ann she always had that smile on her face I know she will be truly missed absent from the body Present with the LORD!! Love Barbara Mattison Wardlaw

Barbara Wardlaw - February 04, 2020 at 09:46 AM

Lisa and I go way back to Elementary school days. Early on in our relationship she adopted me as her "little brother". This of course established her as my "big sister" and she played that role very well. She was a very kind & loving spirit and always exhibited a positive outlook on life...her smile was contagious. I pray God's comfort and peace for the entire Cooley family during this time. May the hope in Jesus Christ be your anchor. Love, Larry Lindsey and family
