“ My heart goes out to the Davis family and my thoughts and prayers are certainly with you. She was always sweet to me, from back when I was a little girl up until the last time I saw her. She will truly be missed. May the Almighty Father give you comfort and strength.

“ Loosing a love one is never easy, however we can find comfort in our father who said he will never leave us in the time of need. Casting all our cares upon him he will give you the peace that surpasses all understanding. Sending you our condolences.
