“ Every young man should have the joy of having an uncle around your age while growing up. One who is old enough to show you the way and young enough to go with you. Uncle Luke was one of a kind. Always kind and willing to share his experiences with you. Easily one of my favorite uncle. A ready smile and so very funny. I have so many fond and special memories of my time with uncle Luke. I learned to drive hanging around with Luke. Luke had a way about him. His rhythm and cadence was special and we always wanted to emulate him. My condolences to his wife and children. Please know that we are praying for you and wishing you peace.

The last of Oscars boys. (Actually, I always considered myself one of Oscars boys). I know he will be missed.

“ My condolences and prayers are shared with the Johnson family in your loss. Special thoughts are extended to Rev. Flora Winestock and daughter Grace. I remember the fond memories we shared of your brother having the same name as my dad and me. It was always a unique experience seeing someone on occasion with the same name.
