“ Mary was one of my dearest friends for many, many years. We didn't get to see each other or talk often but when we did it was like we didn't miss a beat. We picked up where we left off and that's the good part. When that happens it is evidence of a "true friendship". I thank GOD for causing our paths to cross and will always treasure our friendship. Rest from your labor my friend, now enjoy your reward for your faithfulness.
