“ As a new special needs bus aide i rode with Melissa many times, she was a great person to ride with. We laughed a lot spoke about my cooking dinners, she was one of the nicest people I rode with. Even though I don't work at A5 anymore, I am deeply saddened about her passing. May you rest in eternal peace.

“ Family, I met Melissa while shopping at Belks. She was so pretty, kind, and personable. She and I would always talk in the shoe department. May God bless the family. He can ease your burdens like no one else can, trust me, I know, because he has done it for me through so many of life's trials. Death is the main one with close family members. Just remember that his grace and mercy will bring you through this.

“ Condolences to my cousins Robbie, Craig, and the extended family and friends to the Jones Family. Melissa was very dear to me and my brother Terry. We always knew our cousin Craig since we were little playing over at our Uncle Reid and Aunt Frances house. We found out that Melissa was our older cousin through my Aunt introducing us to each other later on after we were grown. We began to hang out with other family members and go out to eat and take little getaways to different places. We became pretty close over the years. She was a great cousin, lady, and friend to all who knew her. We loved her and will miss her. May God bless cousin Robbie, Craig, and the extended family.

“ Melissa was my friend and salon assistant in the 80's and 90's at my salon called "After Effects Hair Studio." Together with took Anderson by storm doing hair, getting customers out in record time. She was always loyal and dedicated to help me. She was beautiful, kind, humble, sometimes shy, she had a beautiful smile, gorgeous eyes, a soft voice, she loved wearing lip gloss, she loved shopping, but most of all she loved her family (especially her mother Mrs. Mildred). Melissa became like family, Whenever, I would care for her long hair, she would only let me trim her ends during a Full Moon. i will never forget that. I am deeply saddened, my friend. We shared a lot of memories and history. Thank you for making my job as a salon owner easier. Condolences to the family, Melissa will truly be missed.💔 I am crying as I write this. Sincere love your friend Brezita

“ ☐💔 I am so lost for words . Melissa was my shopping partner . I met her working at Belk and we clicked immediately . We laughed , kept our secrets , had food out as we shopped . She was so private . Can tell her ANYTHING and she would listen and you would never hear a word about it .

We would try on sooooo many clothes ... she would ask if I liked it and if I didn't she would put the item back and come right back with something else for my opinion and vice versa.

Every Sunday time I saw her , she had those lips glossed , pants creased and had her mother's meal cooked before work. I would ask " what did you cook today " she would tell me what all she cooked and would sneak me whatever she made sweet an say " don't tell nobody now " lol

I miss you friend!!! My heart is broken . Heaven gained a sweet angel
