“ To the Smith family, you have my family's deepest sympathies. Mr Smith and my daddy (Ben Richardson) were riding partners at the Sheriff's department. There were many good times and funny times they shared. We saw him a few years ago, when his wife had passed, and he was still the same, good man. One day at a time.

Sincerely, Denise, Stanley and Ida Mae Richardson.

“ *My condolences to the family of ‘Mr. Norman’. Since I grew up In the neighborhood , I have many memories of him. One of my fondest , ... piling in the Grand Prix to go get groceries from Winn Dixie in Belton . We were so excited to ride less than 3 miles . I remembered that Mr.Norman always waited in the car while we shopped because he pretended that he didn’t want to be bothered with us . However , he was just as excited as we were to drive down town .
Peaceful Rest is now yours Mr. Norman ,*
