Beautiful, caring, loving soul. The world has certainly been blessed because of her briefly passing through and her existence impacting so many lives. I remember vividly the last time we talked and it warms my heart. She knew that I loved her from the time I watched her evolve from an infant into the young woman/mother she became. She knew because I told her. I rejoice because she made it back to her father who sent her; yet my heart is pained because of the void her transition has caused. I'll always love Paulinea.

Our Paulina (Shug) Granddaddy and Faye gave her that nickname, because she was so sweet! She was so sweet and loved every . I have so many memories and pictures to look back on. It's really hard now. I felt as though I lost a daughter, One day I will see my little angel again . along with my Moma and sister Faye. What keeps me going is that I will see you again in the heavenly choir. Moma on the piano and your Moma singing with you on the heavenly choir ! Me and your uncle Johnny will always love you Shug , our beautiful Angel ! Aunt Laura & Uncle Johnny
