Today, I honor the life of my dear friend, a man whose kindness reflected the love of God. He had a gentle spirit and a heart that genuinely cared for others. Even through life's changes, his character remained the same—loving, respectful, and sincere. He showed compassion without condition and kindness without expectation, and that is a rare gift.

The Bible reminds us in Matthew 5:16, "Let your light so shine before men," and he truly lived that way. His light touched many lives, including mine, and for that I am forever grateful. Though he may no longer be with us in the flesh, I find peace knowing he is resting in the presence of the Lord. His legacy of kindness, love, and grace will continue to live on in our hearts.

He will be deeply missed, but never forgotten. May God comfort all who loved him and give us strength as we cherish the memories he left behind

*A poem by Ellen Brenneman:
'Don't think of him as gone away
his journey's just begun, life holds so many facets this earth is only one.*

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.

Think how he must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost and he was loved so much.'
