“ Miss Shirley was the sweetest woman I had the pleasure of working with all those years at Cushman Mill. I could always depend on her to put a smile on my face especially thru those 3rd shift nights. She will truly be missed by a lot of us. RIP dear one!!

“ I remember Mrs. Chapman and her family as a child. She always devoted to her church and family. Being a humble person with a beautiful smile and spirit, she got along with everyone in the community and church. My mother Hattie Greene Ligon respected her a lot as she was a great worker in both areas and my Aunt Ola Mae loved her as a great sister/friend. She made the best chocolate cakes. She will be missed. Jacqueline Greene Dewberry
