“ Chad, I remember when we were about 14 & your grandpa married my grandma & we became cousins...we instantly hit it off, rock & rolling to all those great tunes of our day & especially Lynyrd Skynyrd, cause they were both our favorite band. You gave me .38 Special's very first album caz your uncle Kenny was their first bass player & all the guys autographed it for me when you had went back to Jacksonville. That still today is one of the most special gifts anyone has ever gave me. I will always remember you & all the fun we had & hanging out with Aunt Sherry who was more like our big sister. You will be missed & thought of often. Give Grandpa Grover a hug for me...so until we meet again....with all my love cousin.
