“ I was so saddened to hear of Tyrone’s passing. Affectionately known as “Ty” while we worked together at HWEC, he was always fun loving and kind, never met a stranger and lovingly tried to put “the crew” in check. A true friend, caring “brother” figure that wanted nothing but the best for everyone. His smile, gentle demeanor and kindness will always be remembered. My sincere condolences to the Davis family and all who loved him dearly.

“ I worked at Calhoun where Ty was the resource officer. He was a good guy with a big heart and always had a big bright smile on his face. He would gather outside school with myself and other teachers and enjoyed the laughter and food. He was loved on by all the staff at Calhoun and the kids loved him as well. He never had to raise his voice at them or anything to get them to listen to him. He was kind to everyone. He would always say, " what's going on Geer" or he would say, Here comes trouble" and he would always start laughing before I even had a chance to answer or respond. I dont know why he never called me by my first name but it didn't bother me. I was saddened to here the news of his passing. God need the gentle giant more for a bigger purpose. Take your rest Ty. May there be comfort and peace sent to the family and his loved one for the days and months ahead. Prayers sent up for comfort.

“ To Mrs Helen and family Ricky and I are so sorry for the loss of your loved one. Tyrone was such a joy to be around even if it was just a few minutes. He took time to laugh and chat with everybody and treated everybody with love and respect. These words may not provide much comfort but just know your raising and guiding him was not in vain. Tyrone I will never forget you and Ricky teasing each other and how you treated others. You and your loving and gentle ways made life easier for a lot of people. Smile and rejoice now and take your rest!

“ Ty would always ask me if I am still exercising because he knew at one point that I was trying to get healthy, but I was stubborn and didn't like to walk. So anytime I had to go down to the football field, he would give me rides down to the field and back up to the school building. Eventually, I quit exercising and he would still ask, "Are you exercising?" I would laugh and say, "Ty, you know I ain't exercising." I am going to miss you bunches, Ty. Rest in peace.

“ I will never again hear you holler out “DAVIS!” as our mutual greeting. You’d always talk your junk, and we’d get us a good lil laugh whenever I passed through the lobby. Just this past Friday, you were cutting up like always and said, “Hey, I’m just trying to do my job.”

I met you back when I was a student — my Assistant JV Basketball Coach and one of our security guards. From then to now, you were always steady, always present, always you.

You will truly be missed by the Westside faculty, students, and the entire community. A gentle giant whose presence made this place feel safer, lighter, and a little more like family.

Get Your Rest 🕊️🐑❤️
